Adventure of the Actress' Jewels, First of the Octavius Series,

This sparkling story from the Edison factory is replete with situations that are sure to please and interest, as it is the first of the celebrated Octavius—Amateur Detective, series Octavius—Amnteur Detective, series now running in a popular monthly magazine. Octavius is a young man with so much money that he does not know what to do with it so in his desperation, he decides to become a detective. His first task is the recovery of jewels supposed to have been lost by an actress, but in reality, placed in a secret hiding place to advertise her-self. Octavius takes the jewel box seif. Octavilis takes the jewel box secretly, to identify and trace the finger prints, but is held up on the dark streets, and relieved of the box. The whole affair is traced to the house of Octavius, and the burgiars holding the jewel box are turned over by Octavius as proudly as if he really did tavius, as proudly as if he really did find the missing gems, and their crim-inal possessors. A Broken Melody is a superb Vitagraph drama and deals with the hearts of men and is a pow-erful factor on the programme. Wards of Society in two reels is a most in-teresting film of the decidedly instruc-tive type. It deals with certain socioems shows clearly the u derlying causes of many of the crimes for which society suffers and points conclusively to "the way out." Other fine films are included on the Alexander the Great at the Auditorium Today will be the last chance to see the wonderful antics of Alexander the Great, the wonderful man-monkey which has been attracting so monkey which has been attracting so much attention at this popular vaude-ville theatre the first half of this week. This spe is a study all in himself and it seems almost incredible that an animal could be trained to perform such a variety of stunts as Alexander does. Everybody is talking about this clever little animal who dresses, eats, smokes and apparently thinks first like a man. Another very neat vaude-ville number on today's bill is Maxine, the lady ventriloquist, who displays a very distinct talking and singing voice. Wixon & Rehan, a funny team of comedians complete the vaudeville show in a first class manner.

Today's feature picture will be a wonderful three reel melodrama by the Gold Seal company, with Francis Ford

Gold Seal company, with Francis Ford and Grace Cunard entitled The Bride of Mystery. The picture includes some fine fire scenes. In the Year 2014 is the title of a Joker comedy reel on today's bill, and it promises to be a corker. The silver shower will be run again at the first show Friday night,

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need) apply it at night when retiring; uso enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

WHEN THE BIRDS GO NORTH AGAIN.

Oh, every year hath its winter, And every year hath its rain; but a day is always coming When the birds go north again.

When new leaves swell in the formal And grass springs green on the plant and the alder's veins turn crimson, And the birds go north again.

Tis the sweetest thing to remember, if courage be on the wane, when the cold, dark days are over—Why, the birds go north again.
